

DAIMLER TRUCK

Passenger Seat (wood)

with upholstery fabric made of 70 % wool

reECONIC

70 %

Natural Material in Upholstery Cover

Status as of May 2026

Details

- Prototype seat shell made of 99 % wood
- Upholstery fabric made of 70 % wool and 30 % polyester
- Use of certified wool possible
- Polyester content can also be sourced from recycled material

Statements

Semi-finished product: AUNDE Achter & Ebels GmbH

“With our wool upholstery fabric, we are bringing natural fiber solutions back into the vehicle interior – a step toward resource-efficient and CO₂-reduced material concepts.”

Components: SKA Sitze GmbH

“The wooden seat shell demonstrates the potential of alternative natural materials in vehicle construction – consistently sustainable yet robust in structure.”

Further information about the overall reECONIC project →